

Driver Fees Schedule

Overview

This document outlines the terminology and details of our charging structure, so you know how we charge you on a weekly/monthly basis. This document should be read in conjunction with our terms and conditions for AJDSL IRL Limited Driver App and Driver Portal (our “Ts & Cs”) document, available on the driver portal (driverportal.app), and credit sheets.

Terminology

When reviewing your credit sheet and our Ts & Cs, as mentioned above, you will likely come across the following terminology. Note the definitions below use the definitions outlined in our Ts & Cs.

Account Jobs: when we refer to account jobs, we mean all fares you have undertaken from account bookings in a charging period.

All Jobs: when we refer to all jobs, we mean all the fares you have undertaken in a charging period from account jobs, card jobs and cash jobs.

App Fee: means the weekly fee of £3 charge to access the Autocab driver companion app.

Booking Fee: means an administrative charge included in all fares. These fees are split between you and AJDSL, which we include on your credit sheet.

Card Jobs: when we refer to card jobs, we mean all fares you have undertaken that were paid by card in a charging period.

Cash Jobs: when we refer to card jobs, we mean all fares you have undertaken that were paid by cash in a charging period.

Charging Period: a charging week is the period of time we calculate our fees from each week. This period will depend on the Agent(s) the Driver Partner performs Passenger Transport Services for in a charging period.

Commission: means the percentage (%) we charge you for our services based on all jobs in a charging period. This can range between 12% to 50% depending on location and status.

Credit: means money that is owed to you from us or our Agent(s) for Account Jobs and/or Card Jobs .

Current Balance: Existing card and/or account jobs associated with your account.

Debit: means money that you owe us that we deduct as required for our services.

Loyalty: can mean any of the following:

Client ‘Loyalty’: refers to discounts given to clients to encourage bookings. This discount is paid by AJDSL to ensure that you receive the full fare value.

Client “Loyalty Points”: refers to points that clients earn when they place bookings that can be converted into money over time. This will be paid by AJDSL to ensure that you receive the full fare value.

Driver Partner Loyalty Bonus: you get £10 credit from us for every year you have utilised our services, up to £30 (three years).

Outstanding Balance: Unpaid amount you owe us to continue working.

Previous Balance: means outstanding card and/or account jobs carried over from the previous charging period that remains in credit.

Subscription: means the fixed licence fees formerly referred to as “weekly board”.

Charging Schedule

1. We will charge you the App Fee (and Subscription where applicable) every Charging Period you access the Driver App.
2. We will calculate our commission on all jobs you undertake within a Charging Period. This will be charged one week in arrears and fall payable on a specified date after the Charging Period, dependent upon the Agent(s) the Driver Partner performs Passenger Transport services for.
3. We will deduct our Commission from any Credit owed to you before to requesting you to clear an Outstanding Balance.

4. You will be paid the full fare for any loyalty incentive that the client may avail of. We will Credit the equivalent of any discount applied due to Loyalty during a Charging Period.
5. You are entitled to collect the Booking Fees paid by clients, which we will in turn charge you for our proportion in a Charging Period. This is outlined in your credit sheet.
